HOW IT STARTED

Executive Director Michel Sidibé launched the Zero Discrimination Day on 27 February with a major event in Beijing, China supported by the China Red Ribbon Foundation, Hanergy Holding Group, Chinese government, civil society and celebrities. Similar events are planned for the days leading up to 1 March 2014 in countries around the world.

Zero Discrimination Day is a call to people everywhere to promote and celebrate everyone's right to live a full life with dignity—no matter what they look like, where they come from or whom they love. The symbol for Zero Discrimination is the butterfly, widely recognized as a sign of transformation.

IN THE FRAMEWORK OF ZERO DISCRIMINATION DAY 1ST MARCH 2020...

On 29th of January 2020 our Student Team visited the tavern/grocery store ME...NOY and interviewed the owner Mr. Dimitris Boskos, a disabled person.

Mr. Dimitris Boskos opened this business because it is believed that disabled people cannot find a job! So they wanted to give the opportunity to these people to work and feel useful.

Being blind himself from a young age he dreamt of a place where everyone could feel at home and equal.

SOME PHOTOS FROM THAT DAY

“Love takes off the masks we fear we cannot live without and know we cannot live within.”

- James Baldwin

ACHIEVEMENT HAS NO COLOR

Abraham Lincoln | Anti-Racism Quotes via Gecko&Fly

This is why the anti-discrimination principle being enforced is important. Because it won't stop if some of the underlying biases aren't challenged and surfaced. And that in and of itself creates backlash and denial. This is what I mean when I say better is hard.

AZ QUOTES

No one is born hating another person because of the color of his skin, or his background, or his religion. People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love, for love comes more naturally to the human heart than its opposite.
